

2021-22 Preview

There is a different vibe around the University of Evansville men's basketball program heading into the 2021-22 campaign. Last season saw the Purple Aces improve across the board as they became acclimated to Head Coach Todd Lickliter's system and staff. The first order of business was getting into the win column. Once that box was checked, the team went out and just played basketball. Picked 10th in the Missouri Valley Conference Preseason Poll, the Aces won three of the first four conference games on their way to a 5th place finish in the regular season.

An experienced team sees seven of its nine regulars from last year return along with four starters. Six newcomers round out the team. A duo of 5th year seniors and 4th year seniors are the team leaders for Evansville and had their best collegiate efforts in 2020-21. Returning for their fifth seasons in the purple and white are Noah Frederking and Evan Kuhlman. Frederking was third for UE last year with 10.2 points per game. His 55 3-point makes led the team while his 33.2 minute-per-game average paced UE and was third in the MVC.

Kuhlman continued his steady improvement from the stretch run in the winter of 2020, averaging 9.3 points to complete 2021. He excelled from outside, ranking 6th in the MVC with a 40.2% 3-point tally and 8th with 1.8 outside makes per game. His top career performance came in a home win over UNI as he totaled 21 points while going 7-for-14 from the field.

Givance and Newton made up what was one of the top guard combos in the conference. A Second Team All-MVC honoree in 2021, Givance led the league in steals while ranking in the top ten in scoring and minutes. Averaging 13.3 PPG, Givance increased his scoring average by 9.3 points on his way to a spot on the league's Most Improved Team. Highlighted by a career-high 26 points against Missouri State, Jawaun Newton recorded a team-high 13.5 points, finishing 7th in the league. He finished 7th in the conference in free throw percentage and minutes.

With two notable graduates from last season (Jax Levitch and Devan Straub), the Aces look to returners Iyen Enaruna, Trey Hall, Emmette Page and Gage Bobe to pick up that slack while bringing in six newcomers. That group includes forwards Blake Sisley, Preston Phillips and Antoine Smith Jr. along with guards Troy Boynton, Blaise Beauchamp and Grant Tichenor.

Former National Coach of the Year Todd Lickliter was named the head coach at the University of Evansville on January 21, 2020. Lickliter inked a multiyear deal with the Purple Aces and coached the team for the final 13 games of the 2019-20 campaign.

His presence paid immediate dividends as the overall team along with several individuals showed a vast improvement. Evan Kuhlman and Jawaun Newton took the largest leap, playing the best basketball of their college careers. Prior to Lickliter rejoining the team, Kuhlman posted 4.2 PPG, but upped that average to 9.1 over the final stretch of the season. Junior Jawaun Newton is another who played his best basketball late in the season – in the final 13 games under Coach Lickliter – Newton posted 8.7 PPG after scoring 3.2/game in the first two months of the season.

Facing a season like no other in 2020-21 due to COVID-19, Lickliter and his team came together to orchestrate one of the largest turnarounds in conference history. A 7-game win improvement in conference saw the Aces jump five spots in the standings, finishing in 5th place in 2021. Just as the team turned around, every individual on the squad saw a dramatic improvement. Spearheading that was Shamar Givance. The All-MVC Second Team player was named to the league's Most Improved Team after raising his scoring from 4.0 points in 2019-20 to 13.5 PPG a season later.

Lickliter had a high level of familiarity with the Evansville program and players after spending the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach. He took an active role in coaching a young Aces squad that season. Facing a great deal of turnover while assisting the staff in the implementation of a new system, Lickliter helped guide Evansville to the best record for a first-year staff since 1978. The Aces began Missouri Valley Conference play with a double overtime win against Drake before earning their most decisive win of the season when they defeated defending Final Four participant Loyola by a 67-48 final at the Ford Center.

As the head coach at Butler University from 2001 through 2007, Lickliter brought record-breaking success to the Bulldog program. In his first season at the helm, he directed the team to a then-school record of 26 victories and its third Horizon League regular season championship in a row. His squad also reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in 53 years. Lickliter's success only got better as he led Butler to a pair of Sweet 16 appearance in 2003 and 2007. In 2007, his team fell to eventual National Champion Florida by just eight points. Over his first two seasons at the helm of the Bulldog squad, Lickliter won a total of 53 games. It marked the third-most wins in NCAA history by a men's head coach in the first two years of work, trailing only Bill Guthridge (58 wins) of North Carolina and NC State's Everett Case, who posted 55 wins.

His top honor came in 2007 as he was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year. CollegeHoops.net named him as the High-Major Coach of the Year that same season. He left the program with the top three single-season win totals in school history. Lickliter became the head coach at the University of Iowa in 2007 and led the program at Marian University in 2012. In his second season with the Knights, he led them to the most conference wins in school history along with the #1 scoring defense in NAIA Division II.

After leaving Marian, he joined the Boston Celtics as a scout. Prior to assuming the head coaching position at Butler, Lickliter worked two stints as an assistant at Butler while serving as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan from 1997-99. In his initial period at Butler, Lickliter worked with his college coach – Joe Sexson for the 1988-89 campaign and returned to the program from 1999 through 2001, working with Barry Collier and Thad Matta. At EMU, he assisted on the 1998 team that won the Mid-American Conference Championship behind future NBA star Earl Boykins.

The 1979 graduate of Butler University is a native of Indianapolis, where he played for his father Arlan at North Central High School. He played one season at Central Florida before transferring to Butler. Todd and wife Joez have three sons – Ry, Garrett and John.
